what is worth looking up at Gloucester?

Blackfriars Priory

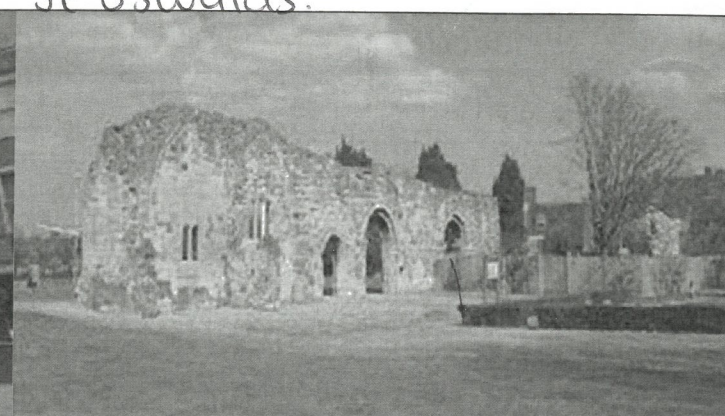

In Gloucester since 1239, on a site that once been part of a Norman - Motte and - Bailey Castle. The friars acted as teachers and evangelists. The monks that lived on sight had to take vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

Crypt

St Mary de Crypt, a Grade 1 listed Church and regarded as one of Gloucester's most important medieval churches. It is of Norman origin and was substantially rebuilt in the late 1300s. During the English civil war, the Church was used as a store for gunpowder.

St Oswalds.

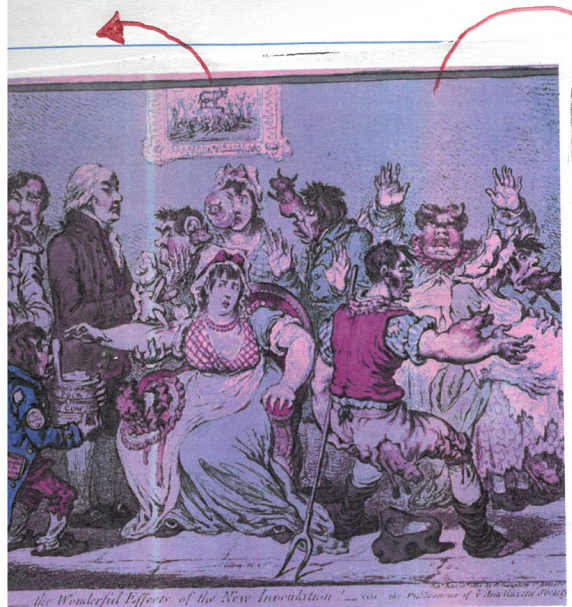

Founded by ~~Aest~~ Aethelfleda daughter of Alfred the Great. She played a major role in fighting off renewed viking attacks. It is believed that Aethelfleda was buried here next to St Oswald's body a very prestigious burial location.

Gloucester Medieval Heritage Tour guide brochure

I think that the most important one of the three is the Crypt, because it is one of Gloucester's most important medieval churches, and it's our very historical.
